

Employment Opportunities

ExhaleSpa's continued success means that we now need to increase our therapist team.

-

Do you want to work with results based products and treatments?

-

Do you want excellent training?

-

Do you want your efforts to be rewarded?

We are looking for a Part Time Beauty Therapist

-

Must be Electrolysis trained

-

Ideally to be a Cibtac & Cidesco trained Therapist

-

Be competent and experienced in beauty therapy treatments

-

Facials, waxing, massage and electrolysis

-

Have a positive, can do attitude

-

Have a mature and common sense outlook on life

-

Be confident in retail sales and passionate about health and well being

-

Have proven, exceptional customer service skills

-

Be able to work alone and contribute to the growth of the business

ExhaleSpa's objective is excellence in everything we do. Our standards are at the highest level with our entire focus being to bring positive and enduring outcomes for our clients. We are judged by our results.

Exhale Spa has moved to the next level now operating as a luxury Day Spa in Raumati in a beautiful and luxurious 1903 classic villa fully restored and equipped to provide the latest technology, treatments and an outstanding experience.

Joining ExhaleSpa would be something only considered by someone who wished to move to the next level in their career. You would have a desire to contribute to our success not only through excellent treatment and client care but also at a business level. Our compensation model will be tailored to reward you for your contribution in both areas as an outstanding therapist and for your contribution to growing ExhaleSpa's business. In return you will:

-

Be paid a base hourly rate, plus commission component for retail sales and services.

-

Be rewarded for business growth outcomes you have generated or contributed to.

-

Provided with all the required tools and equipment to succeed

-

Provided with advanced and ongoing training

-

Support to stay up to date with industry trends.

-

Work in one of the regions top Day Spas

-

Free parking

To find out more about this exceptional opportunity, contact me by sending your resume and a covering letter via email to Rebecca info@exhalespa.co.nz